learning for life
to life*

Reading for Pleasure:

Reading for pleasure plays a vital role in developing your child's academic success and well-being. It's not just about reading books for schoolwork – it's about exploring new worlds, building vocabulary, and sparking creativity. Encouraging reading as a fun, enjoyable activity can have long-lasting benefits for your child, both inside and outside of the classroom.

SuperKind

Students in school are beginning to take part in the SuperKind Award to bring active citizenship and social action into the classroom.

The students will be helped to become change makers and bring about social change.

New Deputy Headteacher

We are very pleased to be welcoming a new Deputy Headteacher / SENCO after Easter, Claire Sillett. Welcome to the team Claire!

After Easter, Charlotte Saunders will be moving to support our new Primary School that is opening in Stamford, Meadows View. We thank Charlotte for all her work and commitment in her duration with us.
